

WOMEN OF THE PASSION: A JOURNEY TO THE CROSS

A LENTEN RETREAT

Thank you for registering.

You will need to bring:

-- Some physical symbol to represent a woman whose life has touched your life in some important way. The woman might be a relative, a famous person, a saint, a writer. The symbol might be a photo, a drawing, a letter, a scarf, a piece of fabric, a piece of clothing-- anything that evokes that special woman for you. But the woman must be a real person, not a literary creation, and the symbol must be something that can be seen and touched.

-- A notebook or journal, a pen, colored pencils or markers.

-- An open mind and an inquiring heart.

Please dress comfortably with shoes suitable for short walks, as part of the retreat will be outside, weather permitting.

Directions: I-30 east to Oakland. South on Oakland to Normandy. Left on Normandy. 1870 Ederville Road S. is at the northwest corner of the intersection of Ederville Road S. and Normandy. It is the first driveway on the left on Ederville Road S.

Parking: Feel free to park in the street along Ederville Road S. or in the parking lot at the north end of Meadowbrook Middle School. If you park in the street, enter through the driveway. If you park in the school lot, enter through the Chapel Garden. The retreat will begin in the Guest House at the north end of the property. Signs will be in place to guide you.
