CANONS

Canons not inconsistent with this Constitution, or the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, may be adopted, altered, amended, or repealed at any Annual Convention by a majority vote of the Convention; provided that no new Canon and no alteration, amendment, or repeal of an existing Canon shall be adopted unless the same shall have been filed in writing with the Secretary of the Convention not less than sixty days before the meeting of the Convention. This Constitution shall commence and be in full force and effect on January 1, 1983.

CANON 11

CORPORATION OF THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF FORT WORTH

Sec. 11.1 Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth is a non-profit benevolent and charitable organization organized under Texas laws, also known as the "Diocesan Corporation". In addition to its regular powers, it may receive, hold, manage and administer funds and properties acquired by gift or by will or otherwise for the use and benefit of the Diocese and any Diocesan institutions.

Sec. 11.2 The management of its affairs shall be conducted and administered by a Board of Trustees of five (5) elected members, all of whom are either Lay persons in good standing of a parish or mission in the Diocese, or members of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, in addition to the Bishop of the Diocese who shall serve as Chairman of the Board or may designate the President or other officer of the corporation to serve as such. The Board of Trustees shall have the power and authority to conduct the affairs of said corporation in accordance with its charter and by-laws and in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese from time to time adopted.

Sec. 11.3 One member of the Board of Trustees shall be elected at each Annual Convention and each member shall serve a term of five (5) years. The terms of members shall be so arranged that the term of only one (1) member shall expire annually. The Board of Trustees shall fill any vacancy which occurs on the Board until the annual election. The Bishop shall nominate the members of the Board of Trustees.

Sec. 11.4 The Board of Trustees shall adopt its own by-laws and shall elect such officers as its by-laws may require.

Sec. 11.5 The Board of Trustees shall submit a report at each Annual Convention covering its operations for the preceding fiscal year and showing its financial condition. If and when required by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, the Board of Trustees shall make such additional reports and furnish such additional information as may be requested. The books and records of the Board of Trustees shall at all times be open for inspection and examination by the Standing Committee of the Diocese or its representatives.

TITLE TO PROPERTY

Sec. 12.1 The title to all property now owned and hereafter acquired by the Diocesan Corporation for its use and benefit and for use and benefit of parishes, missions and other diocesan organizations shall be held in the name of said corporation and may only be conveyed or encumbered with the approval of the Board of Trustees and in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth. All of the assets and properties of the corporation and accumulations thereof shall be held and administered to effectuate its purpose. In case of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporations, whether voluntary or involuntary, or by operation of law, the assets or properties of the corporation shall be distributed in such manner as the Board of Trustees of the corporation shall direct, provided, however, that any such distribution shall be such as is calculated to be exclusively to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is formed or for one or more other exempt purposes within the meaning of the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended or any similar federal statute then in effect and rules and regulations pursuant thereto.

Sec. 12.2 The title to all real estate and other property owned or hereafter acquired for the use of the Church in this Diocese, as well as to property conveyed to Diocesan Institutions or for their use, shall be vested as provided in Article 13 of the Constitution.

Sec. 12.3 If it becomes necessary to sell or lease the property or otherwise dispose of it, the Corporation known as "The Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee is hereby authorized to execute such legal instruments as may be necessary to convey, lease or effect such other disposition as is herein authorized.

Sec. 12.4 Real property acquired by the Corporation for the use of a particular parish or mission shall be held by the Corporation in trust for the use and benefit of such parish or mission. It is immaterial whether said acquisition is by conveyance to the Corporation by a parish or mission now holding title, by the Bishop now holding title as a corporate sole, or by subsequent conveyance to the Corporation, so long as such property was initially acquired by a parish or mission by purchase by its parishioners, or by gift or devise to it, as a parish or mission. Such parish or mission shall be entitled to all income from property held for it in trust by the Corporation and will be responsible for the direct expenses attributable to such property, but not for any administrative expenses of the Corporation. Property held in trust by the Corporation for a particular parish or mission may not be conveyed, leased or encumbered in any way by the Corporation without the written consent of the Rector, Wardens and Vestry of the parish, or the Wardens and Vestry of the mission, for which such property is held in trust. Upon dissolution of a parish or mission, such property held in trust for it shall revert to the Corporation for the use and benefit of the Diocese, as such.

Anthem (sung by the choir)

Music: Herbert Howells

"Behold, O God, our defender"
 Psalm 84:9-10

Behold, O God our defender, and look upon the face of thine anointed. For one day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

The people standing, the Presiding Bishop says

Alleluia. Christ is risen.
 The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia

The Presiding Bishop then says

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presentation

The bishops and people sit. Representatives of the diocese, both Priests and Lay Persons, standing before the Presiding Bishop, present the Bishop-elect, saying

Most Reverend Sir, Bishop in the Church of God, the clergy and people of the Diocese of Fort Worth, trusting in the guidance of the Holy Spirit, have chosen Jack Leo Iker to be a bishop and chief pastor. We therefore ask you to lay your hands upon him and in the power of the Holy Spirit to consecrate him a bishop in the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church.

The Presiding Bishop then directs that testimonials of the election be read.

When the reading of the testimonials is ended, the Presiding Bishop requires the following promise from the bishop-elect

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, I, Jack Leo Iker, chosen Bishop of the Church in Fort Worth, solemnly declare that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do solemnly engage to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Episcopal Church.

The Bishop-elect then signs the Declaration in the sight of all present. The witnesses add their signatures.

The Presiding Bishop then says the following, and asks the response of the people

Brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus, you have heard the testimony given that Jack Leo Iker has been duly and lawfully elected to be a bishop of the Church of God to serve in the Diocese of Fort Worth. You have been assured of his suitability and that the Church has approved him for this sacred responsibility. Nevertheless, if any of you know any reason why we should not proceed, let it now be made known.

If no objection is made, the Presiding Bishop continues

Is it your will that we ordain Jack a bishop?

The People respond

That is our will.

Presiding Bishop

Will you uphold Jack as bishop?

The People respond

We will.

The Presiding Bishop then says

The Scriptures tell us that our Savior Christ spent the whole night in prayer before he chose and sent forth his twelve apostles. Likewise, the apostles prayed before they appointed Matthias to be one of their number. Let us, therefore, follow their examples, and offer our prayers to Almighty God before we ordain Jack for the work for which we trust the Holy Spirit has called him.

All kneel and the person appointed leads the Litany for Ordinations

God the Father.
God the Son,
God the Holy Spirit,
Holy Trinity, one God,
*Have mer-cy on us.
Have mer-cy on us.
Have mer-cy on us.
Have mer-cy on us.*

We pray to you, Lord Christ.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For the holy Church of God, that it may be filled with truth and love, and be found without fault at the Day of your Coming.
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

For all members of your Church in their vocation and ministry, that they may serve you in a true and godly life,
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

For Edmond, our Presiding Bishop, and for all bishops, priests, and deacons, that they may be filled with your love, may hunger for truth, and may thirst after righteousness,
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

For Jack, chosen bishop in your Church,
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

That he may faithfully fulfill the duties of this ministry, build up your Church, and glorify your Name,
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

That by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit he may be sustained and encouraged to persevere to the end,
*we pray to you, O Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer*

The Examination

All now sit, except the bishop-elect, who stands facing the bishops.

The Presiding Bishop addresses the bishop-elect

My brother, the people have chosen you and have affirmed their trust in you by acclaiming your election. A bishop in God's holy Church is called to be one with the apostles in proclaiming Christ's resurrection and interpreting the Gospel, and to testify to Christ's sovereignty as Lord of lords and King of kings.

You are called to guard the faith, unity, and discipline of the Church; to celebrate and to provide for the administration of the sacraments of the New Covenant; to ordain priests and deacons and to join in ordaining bishops; and to be in all things a faithful pastor and wholesome example for the entire flock of Christ.

With your fellow bishops you will share in the leadership of the Church throughout the world. Your heritage is the faith of patriarchs, prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and those of every generation who have looked to God in hope. Your joy will be to follow him who came, not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.

Are you persuaded that God has called you to the office of bishop?

Answer I am so persuaded.

The following questions are then addressed to the bishop-elect by one or more of the other bishops

Bishop Will you accept this call and fulfill this trust in obedience to Christ?

Answer I will obey Christ, and will serve in his name.

Bishop Will you be faithful in prayer, and in the study of Holy Scripture, that you may have the mind of Christ?

Answer I will, for he is my help.

Bishop Will you boldly proclaim and interpret the Gospel of Christ, enlightening the minds and stirring up the conscience of your people?

Answer I will, in the power of the Spirit.

Bishop As a chief priest and pastor, will you encourage and support all baptized people in their gifts and ministries, nourish them from the riches of God's grace, pray for them without ceasing, and celebrate with them the sacraments of our redemption?

Answer I will, in the name of Christ, the Shepherd and Bishop of our souls.

Bishop Will you guard the faith, unity, and discipline of the Church?

Answer I will, for the love of God.

Bishop Will you share with your fellow bishops in the government of the whole Church; will you sustain your fellow presbyters and take counsel with them; will you guide and strengthen the deacons and all others who minister in the Church?

Answer I will, by the grace given me.

Bishop Will you be merciful to all, show compassion to the poor and strangers, and defend those who have no helper?

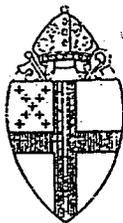

Answer I will, for the sake of Christ Jesus.

All stand. The Presiding Bishop then says

Jack, through these promises you have committed yourself to God, to serve his Church in the office of bishop. We therefore call upon you, chosen to be a guardian of the Church's faith, to lead us in confessing that faith.

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, otherwise known as The Episcopal Church (which name is hereby recognized as also designating the Church), is a constituent member of the Anglican Communion, a Fellowship within the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church, of those duly constituted Dioceses, Provinces, and regional Churches in communion with the See of Canterbury, upholding and propagating the historic Faith and Order as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer. This Constitution, adopted in General Convention in Philadelphia in October, 1789, as amended in subsequent General Conventions, sets forth the basic Articles for the government of this Church, and of its overseas missionary jurisdictions.

ARTICLE I

Sec. 1. There shall be a General Convention of this Church, consisting of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, which Houses shall sit and deliberate separately; and in all deliberations freedom of debate shall be allowed. Either House may originate and propose legislation, and all acts of the Convention shall be adopted and be authenticated by both Houses.

General Convention.

Sec. 2. Each Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, every Suffragan Bishop, every Assistant Bishop, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity, or who, under an election to an office created by the General Convention, or for reasons of mission strategy determined by action of the General Convention or the House of Bishops, has resigned a jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdiction or positions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

House of Bishops.

Sec. 3. At the General Convention next before the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, it shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops of this Church to be the Presiding Bishop of the Church by a vote of a majority of all Bishops, excluding retired Bishops not present, except that whenever two-thirds of the House of Bishops are present a majority vote shall suffice, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies. The term and tenure of office and duties and particulars of the election not inconsistent with the preceding provisions shall be prescribed by the Canons of the General Convention.

Election of Presiding Bishop.

But if the Presiding Bishop of the Church shall resign the office as such, or if by reason of infirmity shall become disabled, or in case of death, the Bishop who, according to the Rules of the House of

In case the Episcopate of a Diocese be vacant, no proceedings toward its division shall be taken until the vacancy is filled. After consent of the General Convention, when a certified copy of the duly adopted Constitution of the new Diocese, including an unqualified accession to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, shall have been filed with the Secretary of the General Convention and approved by the Executive Council of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be in union with the General Convention.

No Member of the Clergy of this Church shall be required to admit to the Sacraments a person so refused or repelled without the written direction of the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority. MATAGORDA, JAN. 1, 1849.

At a meeting of the Clergy and Laity of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Texas, called by the Right Rev. G. W. Freeman, D. D., Missionary Bishop, exercising Episcopal functions in the said State, at their request, and held in Christ Church, in the city of Matagorda, on Monday, the first day of January, 1849, for the purpose of considering the propriety of organizing the Church in said State into a Diocese: there were present of the Clergy, Rev. C. S. Ives, Rev. C. Gillett, Rev. J. F. Young; of the Laity, Matthew Talbot, Esq., James Dennison, Esq., Thomas C. Stewart, Esq., W. L. Sartwell, Esq., and Dr. P. A. Davenport. The Rt. On motion of the Rev. C. S. Ives,
Resolved, That the Chair appoint a committee, consisting of one Clergyman and one Layman, to ascertain what persons are properly delegated to attend this Convention.

The Chair appointed the Rev. J. F. Young, and Dr. P. A. Davenport, said committee, who, after examination had, presented the following report, which was adopted:

The committee appointed to ascertain who are properly delegated to attend this Convention, report the following gentlemen as having presented certificates of their election from various parishes in this State:—Matthew Talbot, Esq., James Dennison, Esq., Thomas C. Stewart, Esq., and William L. Sartwell, Esq., from Christ Church, Matagorda; Dr. P. A. Davenport, Esq., from St. John's Church, Brazoria County; and Todd Robinson, Esq., Gray M. Bryan, Esq., and William L. Bush, Esq., from St. John's Church, Brazoria County; and Col. Geo. Fisher, and W. M. Taylor, Esq., from Christ Church, Houston, of whom the following were present; Matthew Talbot, Esq., James Dennison, Esq., Thomas C. Stewart, Esq., William L. Sartwell, Esq., and Dr. P. A. Davenport.

The Chair then declared the meeting duly organized, and ready to consider the question of organizing the State into a Diocese.

COPY: Material located in the Archives of the Episcopal Church

The Chair stated briefly, but pertinently, our present position, and the nature of the step proposed; after which, the following preamble and resolution, moved by Rev. C. Gillet, were adopted:

Whereas the Clergy and Laity of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States, living in Texas, have been for some time past desirous of uniting themselves into a Diocese, to be represented in the General Convention of said Church; and for other purposes, not attainable without such Ecclesiastical organization: And whereas, the present meeting of the Clergy and Laity of said Church, was called by the Right Rev. Bishop, Presiding, at their request; And although some of our brethren have been detained, as is believed, by the rumor of an epidemic, or by high waters; yet this meeting having been called by their approbation, it is deemed necessary by the Clergy and Lay Delegates here assembled, that they proceed to organize a Diocese;—Therefore,
Be it resolved by this meeting, That the Clergy and Laity of said Church, living in Texas, are hereby united and formed into a Diocese, to be styled and known as the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of Texas, and to be in union with the General Convention of said Church, when admitted to a representation therein.

On motion of Rev. C. S. Ives, the Chair then appointed the following committees:

I. To report a Constitution of the Diocese of Texas,

Rev. C. S. Ives,
 JAMES DENNISON, Esq.

II. To report such Canons as may be necessary to carry into effect the organization,

Rev. C. Gillet,
 W. M. L. SAWYER, Esq.

After retiring and consultation, the committee on the Constitution reported the following (see appendix A.) when, on motion of Rev. J. F. Young, the articles of the Constitution were considered, and adopted seriatim; and, on motion of T. C. Stewart, Esq., the Constitution was then adopted as a whole. The committee on Canons reported the following, (see appendix B.) which, on motion of Rev. J. F. Young, were considered, and adopted seriatim; and, on motion of T. C. Stewart, Esq., they were then adopted collectively as our present Canons.

On motion of Rev. J. F. Young, the Chair appointed Rev. J. F. Young, and Dr. P. A. Davenport, a committee to report a form of articles of association, to be recommended for the organization of new parishes in this Diocese. The committee reported the following, (see appendix C.) which, on motion of James Dennison, Esq., was adopted as a whole.

On motion of Dr. P. A. Davenport, the Convention then adjourned until 3 o'clock, P. M. C. GILLET, Secretary.

JAN. 1, 3 o'clock, P. M.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The Right Rev. the Bishop, in the Chair.

Minutes of the morning session read and adopted.

On motion of Rev. C. S. Ives,

Resolved, That the present standing committee consist of three.

On motion of Rev. C. S. Ives,

Resolved, That we now proceed to elect the standing committee.

The balloting then took place, which resulted in the election of Rev. C. S. Ives, Rev. C. Gillet, and Rev. J. F. Young.*

On motion of Rev. C. Gillet, the Convention then proceeded to the election of Delegates to the General Convention, which resulted as follows:

Clergymen.                  Rev. Messrs. Ives,                  Ebron,                  Gillet,                  Young.	Laymen.                  Messrs. P. A. DAVENPORT,                  E. S. PERKINS,                  R. D. JOHNSON,                  W. L. SAWYER.

On motion of Rev. C. Gillet, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we place the Diocese of Texas "under the full Episcopal charge, and authority" of the "Right Rev. G. W. Freeman, D. D., Missionary Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church, appointed to exercise Episcopal functions in the States of Arkansas and Texas, and in the Indian Territory South of 36 1-2 deg. parallel of latitude."

* The Standing Committee met immediately after the adjournment for the Convention, and organized by the election of Rev. C. S. Ives, Chairman, and the Rev. J. F. Young, Secretary.

Resolved, That, inasmuch as the exigencies of the Church in Texas require organization, and it is still too feeble to support a Bishop, that the Board of Missions be, and hereby are, respectfully requested to continue to us the aid hitherto extended.

On motion of Dr. P. A. Davenport,

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to transmit the foregoing resolutions to the Board of Missions.

On motion of Rev. J. F. Young,

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Convention be authorized and instructed to have printed 500 copies of the minutes of this Convention, and that he forward 12 copies of the same to each Clergyman of this Diocese.

Wm. M. Taylor, Esq., Delegate from Christ Church, Houston, appeared at this point in the proceedings, presented his certificate of election, and took his seat as a member of the Convention.

On motion of Rev. C. S. Ives,

Resolved, That the next meeting of the Convention be held in the city of Houston, on the second Thursday of Dec., 1849; but the Bishop, if he see good reason, may change the time of meeting.

On motion of J. F. Young,

Resolved, That, as the Lay Delegation from Houston has been prevented from reaching here until a late period in our session, that the minutes of all our proceedings, together with the Constitution and Canons, be read, before adjournment; that opportunity may be had, for re-consideration, should not all our proceedings meet the views of that delegation.

Whereupon the Secretary proceeded to read as directed.

On motion of Rev. J. F. Young, the minutes of the entire Convention were approved.

On motion of Rev. C. S. Ives,

Resolved, That after prayers by the Bishop, this Convention adjourn sine die; whereupon, the Bishop having concluded the proceedings by prayer and benediction, the Convention adjourned.

CHARLES GILLET, Secretary.

186 JOURNAL OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION. [1850.

TEXAS.

The Church in this State was organized into a Diocese on the first day of January, 1849. The first Annual Convention met at Christ Church, Houston, on the 9th of May, A.D. 1850; from the Journal of which we learn that there are eight Clergymen, besides the Provisional Bishop, connected with this field, and that ten organized parishes have been admitted into union with the Convention of the Diocese. In seven of these parishes, since the Primary Convention, there have been 192 infants and 19 adults baptized; 80 persons confirmed; 14 marriages celebrated; and 31 funerals attended. In six parishes, the whole number of communicants is 282; and in three, the number of Sunday School Teachers amounts to 33, and of Scholars to 210.

One Candidate for Orders has been admitted to the Diaconate, and one Deacon has been ordained Priest.

There are some important places within our vast territory where our Church may be established, had we Clergymen qualified for the work. The persevering and consistent Minister of Christ can soon gather around him a congregation of respectful worshippers, if not of devoted Churchmen; and our prayer is that the Great Head of the Church will direct the attention of some of our brethren, who may be suited, to labor amongst a community remarkable for general intelligence, towards those places in our State where their work, under God, would be ultimately crowned with success.

Dr. Haynie withdrew the name of Mr. Raymond, and nominated Dr. J. S. Rayfield. Several other names, clerical and lay, were put in nomination.

Rev. Mr. Waddill and Mr. Anderson were re-appointed tellers, and on the 1st ballot Dr. Rayfield was elected the fourth Lay Deputy. There being still no election of the Clerical deputy, the balloting was continued. On the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th ballots, there was no election. The name of the Rev. Mr. Benners was then withdrawn, and on the 6th ballot the Rev. Mr. Davenport was elected the fourth Clerical Deputy.

On motion, the Council proceeded to the election of Alternates. The Rev. Messrs. Rucker, Starr, Patrick and Wagner and Messrs. Dashiell, Raymond, Baker and Maxey were put in nomination. On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and the above-named were elected by acclamation.

The following additional elections were then held:
For Trustees of the General Theological Seminary:
On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. Mr. Rucker and Peter W. Gray were re-elected.

The election of Trustees of the University of the South was, by consent, postponed for the present.

Trustees of St. Paul's College: The former Board was re-elected, with the Rev. Mr. Lird, in place of the Rev. Mr. Truder, absent from the Diocese; and Mr. James Arbuckle, in place of Mr. H. E. Perkins, deceased.

The Historical Committee: On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and the former Committee re-elected.

The Committee on General Education: On motion, the ballot was dispensed with, and the former Committee re-elected.

The Rev. Mr. Rogers then presented the following:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REDUCTION OF DIOCESE.

The Committee to whom was referred so much of the Bishop's Address as relates to increased Episcopal supervision for, and a reduction of the territory of the Diocese of Texas, report that, after a careful examination thereof, they fully coincide with his opinions therein expressed. We believe that the interests of the Church do imperatively demand such legislation as shall give to the Church far more Episcopal supervision than it is possible for any one Bishop to render. Our territory is about 260,000 square miles, with 100 counties. Our railroads accommodate but more far-scattered thirds of counties. Our population is some eleven or twelve hundred thousand souls and to us it is clear that our obligations as a Church are utterly beyond our ability as a Diocese. The services of our Church should be carried to hundreds, perhaps thousands of villages, hamlets and neighborhoods within our borders where now they are never heard.

Our records show that to divide our Diocese into two or more is canonically impossible. To avail ourselves of the services of an Assistant Bishop and support him, is equally impossible, and if that could be done, it is not desirable.

To meet these urgent wants, our Bishop recommends that the next General Convocation be petitioned by this Diocese to set off all that portion of this Diocesan territory that lies westerly and northerly of the following described lines, makes and bounds, to-wit: Beginning on Matagorda bay, at the southwesterly corner of Matagorda county; thence northwesterly on the westerly line of the counties of Matagorda, Wharton, Colorado, Fayette, Bastrop and Travis to its point of contact with the Colorado river; thence up the middle of said river to the northwesterly corner of Lampasas county; and thence northeasterly to the eastern boundary of the State, running along the northwesterly line of Lampasas, Coryell, McLennan, Limestone, Freestone, Suttell, Gregg, Rusk, Harrison and Marion counties; and thence following the easterly boundary line of the State of Texas southerly to the Gulf of Mexico; and thence follow the southerly boundary line of said State along said Gulf westerly to the place of beginning on the southwesterly corner of Matagorda county, and that the territory lying outside the aforesaid line, be taken under the care of the general Church; and that the House of Bishops be further petitioned to erect the same into missionary jurisdictions and to elect missionary Bishops therefor.

Your Committee therefore recommend the passage of the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese be requested, and our deputation to the next General Convocation be instructed to petition that body in the premises. Seeing forth that the territory of this Diocese is too large for the more Episcopal supervision of the Bishop of this diocese; and praying that said Convocation will act off all that portion of the territory of this Diocese outside the lines above described, the notes and bounds as above set out.

Resolved, That the Bishop and said deputation are hereby empowered in behalf and in the name of this Diocese to do any and everything necessary to carry out the foregoing purposes.
 All of which is respectfully submitted.

the Board of Missions," which seems to have escaped from the general drawback. This less conspicuous and more quiet agency, led on by delicate, yet heroic spirits, has abundantly prospered. Boxes of clothing, contributions in household comforts, medicines and hospital stores—in addition to supplies in money—have been placed at its disposal almost without stint, which have been sent upon occasion to the sick Indian and the naked Afric, as well as to the destitute Pastor and his family. Busy hands have been enlisted by its charity, both far and near, from the Mission Schools of Greece, to little circles of helping women on our Western border. Many a latent energy has it kindly evoked and silent sympathy has it called into play. Too much can hardly be said in commendation of its service, both directly to the cause of Christian beneficence and in the way of a wholesome employment of womanly zeal and love.

In fulfilment of their duty, as appointed by the House of Deputies, to consider and report upon the matter in hand, your Committee herewith submit the results of their inquiries in a few brief notes, prepared by their order in the several subdivisions of their body.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

THE FIELD.—The Church has included within the bounds of Dioceses or Missionary Jurisdictions all the territory of the United States, except that portion lately acquired from Russia, and commonly called Alaska. The field for Domestic Missions remains therefore the same in respect to dimensions, from year to year, unless new area be brought under the National Government. But the cultivated part of this field may be extended by the zeal and fidelity of the Church, in obedience to her Lord, and beneath His blessing. Thanks to Him, to-day, that as the Territories have been peopled these last few years, Missionary Bishops and Presbyters have pressed forward as rapidly as emigrants before them! In organized Dioceses, too, the Church has not been neglectful, but has sought new places continually for settlement and labor.

The doings of the General Convention at this present session of 1874, all agreeably to the convictions and desires of the Board of Missions, need not be recounted. Suffice it to say, that from the Dioceses of Texas and California large tracts have been set off and given up as Missionary Territory, and that three or more new Domestic Missionary Bishops have been or will be appointed.

THE LABORERS.—The experience of the Church has proved that it is far easier to secure men of ability to fill the Missionary Episcopate than that of the single Missionary. But what can Bishops accomplish single-handed and alone? Without the assistance of clergymen they can only begin the task which they must leave unfinished. Your Committee observe with sorrow, yea, with alarm, how slowly grows the list of the Clerical Order. During the past six years but about seventy-eight candidates have been annually ordained in the whole American Church, while the number looking forward to the Priesthood has actually diminished. Deducting ministers borne to the rest of Paradise, and those who from sickness or age have been laid aside from duty, either wholly or in part, the Church cannot but feel imperatively called upon to address her prayer to the Lord, that "He would send forth more laborers into His harvest." No exertion should she spare by legislation, charity, and active influence, to lift up the ratio of clerical increase to a more just proportion to her needs, and to those of our country. With the failure of the clergy must follow that of the missionaries, and then of missions.

Thus stands the table since 1869, when there were two hundred and eleven Domestic Missionaries: in 1870, 192; in 1871, 209; in 1872, 211; in 1873, 214; in 1874, 206. The missions of the Church have not even secured
