LOCAL EPISCOPAL PARTIES' FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

TO: Defendants, as listed in Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment,² by and through their attorneys of record J. Shelby Sharpe, Scott A. Brister, and R. David Weaver.

Pursuant to TEX. R. CIV. P. 197.1 and 197.2, the Local Episcopal Parties request that Defendants, as defined below, timely serve verified answers to the following written interrogatories within 30 days of the date of service of this request.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

As used herein:

1. "You" or "your" refers to the individual or entity to whom or which this discovery request is addressed.
2. "Local Episcopal Parties" means the Rt. Rev. C. Wallis Ohl, Robert Hicks, Floyd McKneely, Shannon Shipp, David Skelton, Whit Smith, Margaret Mieuli, Anne T. Bass, Walt Cabe, the Rev. Christopher Jambor, the Rev. Frederick Barber, the Rev. David Madison, Robert M. Bass, the Rev. James Hazel, Cherie Shipp, the Rev. John Stanley, Dr. Trace Worrell, the Rt. Rev. Edwin F. Gulick, Jr., and Kathleen Wells.

¹ The style is being shortened at the request of the Clerk's office. It does not imply that any parties are omitted or dropped from the case.

² Reference to the defendants who have identified themselves as "The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" and "The Corporation of The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" does not imply that Defendants have authority to control those entities or their assets or that these parties are a diocese and corporation, respectively, as contended. The Local Episcopal Parties have referred to these defendants in other filings as the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone's "Diocese of Fort Worth" and the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone's "Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth," respectively. The Court has granted Plaintiff The Episcopal Church's Motion for Summary Judgment and the Local Episcopal Parties' Amended Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and has determined that the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth is a "constituent part of [The Episcopal] Church" and "consists of those individuals remaining loyal to the hierarchical church body." As a result, the Local Episcopal Parties, as "individuals remaining loyal to the hierarchical church body," are "the individuals who remain entitled to the use and control of the church property" and are entitled to "control of the Diocesan Corporation."

3. "Defendants" means the parties that filed "Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment" on December 23, 2010, as those parties listed themselves therein.³
4. "Corporation" means the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, incorporated in 1983.
5. "Diocese" means the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth formed in 1982 as a diocese of The Episcopal Church.
6. "Iker" means The Rt. Rev. Jack Leo Iker.
7. "Endowment Fund" means the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, an institution of the Diocese that holds and manages certain property of the Diocese and was authorized under article 16 of the Diocesan Constitution.
8. Pursuant to TEX. R. CIV. P. 197.1 and 197.2, please provide separate verified answers for each party to whom these interrogatories are directed.
9. The time period covered by these Interrogatories is January 1, 2006 to the present, unless specified otherwise in a particular Interrogatory.

INTERROGATORIES

1. Does Exhibit A2 accurately state the legal description of each and every parcel of real property in which the Diocese or any of its institutions, including but not limited to the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, and any schools, currently has or had as of November 15, 2008 a legal or equitable interest of any type (e.g., as owner or beneficiary)? If not, please provide a correct description of any properties inaccurately described, and for any property not included in Exhibit A2, please state the legal and common descriptions and location of the property; the size of the property in acres; a description of every improvement on the property; the name of the person or entity having the interest in the property; and whether any part of the property is within the corporate limits of a town and, if so, the name of the town.

RESPONSE:

2. For each property listed on Exhibit A2 or described in response to Interrogatory 1, please provide the name and title of each person purporting to act on behalf of any of Defendants who has exercised control and use of the property after November 15, 2008; a description of any and all changes in disposition, condition, ownership, or control of the property after November 15, 2008 (including any sale, lease, other transfer, changed use, encumbrance, pledge of the property as collateral, increase or decrease in fair market value by more than 10%, or destruction) and the name of any person who authorized or dissented from each such action; and, for any interest acquired after November 14, 2008, the date and purchase price of the property or interest.

RESPONSE:

3. IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF

TARRANT COUNTY, TEXAS

141ST DISTRICT COURT

LOCAL EPISCOPAL PARTIES' FIRST REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

TO: All Defendants, as listed in Defendants' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment,² by and through their attorneys of record J. Shelby Sharpe, Scott A. Brister, and R. David Weaver.

Pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 196.1, the Local Episcopal Parties request that Defendants, as defined below, timely respond to this Request for Production and produce the requested documents for inspection and copying at the offices of the Local Episcopal Parties' counsel, 2001 Ross Ave., Suite 3700, Dallas, TX 75201, within 30 days of the date of service of this request.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

1. "Documents" means any and all written, typed or printed matters, and all magnetic, electronic, or other records or documentation of any kind of description, including emails, as described in TEX. R. CIV. P. 192.3. Please produce all electronic or magnetic data or media in electronic or magnetic form pursuant to TEX. R. CIV. P. 192.4 on compact discs (CDs) or DVDs.

¹ The style has been shortened at the request of the Clerk's office. It does not imply that any parties are omitted or dropped from the case.

² Reference to the defendants who have identified themselves as "The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" and "The Corporation of The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" does not imply that Defendants have authority to control those entities or their assets or that these parties are a diocese and corporation, respectively, as contended. The Local Episcopal Parties have referred to these defendants in other filings as the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone's "Diocese of Fort Worth" and the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone's "Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth," respectively. The Court has granted Plaintiff The Episcopal Church's Motion for Summary Judgment and the Local Episcopal Parties' Amended Motion for Partial Summary Judgment and has determined that the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth is a "constituent part of [The Episcopal] Church" and "consists of those individuals remaining loyal to the hierarchical church body." As a result, the Local Episcopal Parties, as "individuals remaining loyal to the hierarchical church body," are "the individuals who remain entitled to the use and control of the church property" and are entitled to "control of the Diocesan Corporation."

2. "You" or "your" refers to the individual or entity to which this discovery request is addressed.
3. "Local Episcopal Parties" means the Rt. Rev. C. Wallis Ohl, Robert Hicks, Floyd McKneely, Shannon Shipp, David Skelton, Whit Smith, Margaret Mieuli, Anne T. Bass, Walt Cabe, the Rev. Christopher Jambor, the Rev. Frederick Barber, the Rev. David Madison, Robert M. Bass, the Rev. James Hazel, Cherie Shipp, the Rev. John Stanley, Dr. Trace Worrell, the Rt. Rev. Edwin F. Gulick, Jr., and Kathleen Wells.
4. "Diocese" means the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth formed effective January 1, 1983 as a diocese of The Episcopal Church.
5. "Corporation" means the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, incorporated in 1983.
6. "Church" means Plaintiff The Episcopal Church.
7. "Endowment Fund" means the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, an institution of the Diocese that holds and manages certain property of the Diocese and was authorized under article 16 of the Diocesan Constitution.
8. "Defendants" means the parties that filed "Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment" on December 23, 2010, as those parties listed themselves therein.³
9. "Individual Defendants" means The Rt. Rev. Jack Leo Iker, Judy Mayo, Franklin Salazar, Julia Smead, The Rev. Christopher Cantrell, The Rev. Timothy Perkins, The Rev. Ryan Reed, The Rev. Thomas Hightower, Jo Ann Patton, Walter Virden, III, Rod Barber, and Chad Bates.
10. "Iker" means The Rt. Rev. Jack Leo Iker.
11. "Defendant Diocese" means the party represented by J. Shelby Sharpe and Scott A. Brister that calls itself "The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth."⁴
12. "Defendant Corporation" means the party represented by J. Shelby Sharpe and Scott A. Brister that calls itself "The Corporation for the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth."⁵
13. "Intervening Congregations" means the parties represented by R. David Weaver who filed their First Amended Original Plea in Intervention on November 12, 2010 and the party calling itself "All Saints' Episcopal Church" and represented by R. David Weaver.
14. "Relevant Entities" means the following entities:

³ See footnote 2 above.

⁵ See footnote 2 above.

- a. the Diocese;
- b. the Corporation;
- c. the Endowment Fund;

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO LOCAL EPISCOPAL PARTIES' FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES

TO: THE LOCAL EPISCOPAL PARTIES, by and through its attorneys of record, Jonathan D.F. Nelson, Esq., 1400 W. Abram Street, Arlington, TX 76013; Kathleen Wells, Esq., P.O. Box 101174, Fort Worth, TX 76185; William D. Sims, Jr., Esq. or Thomas S. Leatherbury, Esq. VINSON & ELKINS, LLP, 2001 Ross Avenue, Suite 3700, Dallas, TX 75201; and Frank Hill, Esq., HILL GILSTRAP, 1400 W. Abram Street, Arlington, TX 76013.

"Defendants", as defined in the Local Episcopal Parties' First Set of Interrogatories, make and file this Response to Local Episcopal Parties' First Set of Interrogatories pursuant to Rule 197, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure:

Objection to Local Episcopal Parties' First Set of Interrogatories in Their Entirety

Defendants object to the Local Episcopal Parties' First Set of Interrogatories, in their entirety, for the reason that such interrogatories, including their non-numbered subparts, require more than 25 responses from Defendants, in contravention to Rule 190.2(c)(3), Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Without waiving the foregoing objection to the Local Episcopal Parties' First Set of Interrogatories in their entirety, and still insisting and relying upon the same, Defendants respond as follows:

Interrogatories

1. Does Exhibit A2 accurately state the legal description of each and every parcel of real property in which the Diocese or any of its institutions, including but not limited to the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, and any schools, currently has or had as of November 15, 2008 a legal or equitable interest of any type (e.g., as owner or beneficiary)? If not, please provide a correct description of any properties inaccurately described, and for any property not included in Exhibit A2, please state the legal and common descriptions and location of the property; the size of the property in acres; a description of every improvement on the property; the name of the person or entity having the interest in the property; and whether any part of the property is within the corporate limits of a town and, if so, the name of the town.

ANSWER: To the best of Defendants' knowledge and belief, Exhibit A2 states the correct legal description of the properties reflected therein.

2. For each property listed on Exhibit A2 or described in response to Interrogatory 1, please provide the name and title of each person purporting to act on behalf of any of Defendants who has exercised control and use of the property after November 15, 2008; a description of any and all changes in disposition, condition, ownership, or control of the property after November 15, 2008 (including any sale, lease, other transfer, changed use, encumbrance, pledge of the property as collateral, increase or decrease in fair market value by more than 10%, or destruction) and the name of any person who authorized or dissented from each such action; and, for any interest acquired after November 14, 2008, the date and purchase price of the property or interest.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 2 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad, burdensome and oppressive and is propounded for the purpose of harassment, in that literally thousands of individuals have used and have exercised control over the properties described on Exhibit A2, and the requirement that Defendants provide information with respect to the identities of such persons is unreasonable. Further, Defendant objects to Interrogatory No. 2 for the reason that such interrogatory is irrelevant to any material issue in this cause and is not calculated to lead to the discovery of evidence admissible upon the trial of this cause.

3. Do Exhibits A1 and B1 accurately state the name of each depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity in which the Diocese or any of its institutions, including but not limited to the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, and any schools, currently has or had as of November 15, 2008 a legal or equitable interest of any type (e.g., as owner or beneficiary)? If not, please provide the correct names of any such depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity that is incorrectly named in Exhibits A1 or B1, and, for any depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity that is not listed in Exhibits A1 or B1, please state the correct name of each depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity in which an interest exists; the nature of the interest held by the Diocese or any of its institutions, (including, but not limited to, the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, and any schools) in the depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity; and the date on which the interest was acquired.

ANSWER: To the best of Defendants' knowledge and belief, Exhibits A1 and B1 accurately state the names of the accounts identified.

4. For each depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity listed in Exhibits A1 or B1 or identified in response to Interrogatory 3, please provide the name and title of any person purporting to act on behalf of any of Defendants who has exercised control and/or used the money or property after November 15, 2008; a description of the money or property held by or in the depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity; and a description of each payment of money or sale, lease, other transfer, changed use, encumbrance, pledge of the property as collateral, increase or decrease in fair market value by more than 10% or destruction of property from the depository or investment account, foundation, fund, trust, or other entity since November 15, 2008, including the name of any person who authorized or dissented from the actions described.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 4 for the reason that such interrogatory is vague and ambiguous, in that Defendants do not know what Plaintiffs mean by the phrase "exercised control and/or used". Without waiving the foregoing objection, Defendants state that the accounts in question are under the stewardship of the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and its duly elected and authorized trustees and officers.

5. Please fully describe each item of personal property having a fair market value of more than $500 in which the Diocese or any of its institutions (including, but not limited to, the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, and any schools) has or has had a legal or equitable interest of any type (e.g., as owner or beneficiary) since November 15, 2008, including the name and title of each person purporting to act on behalf of any of Defendants who has exercised authority over the property after November 15, 2008 and a description of any change in disposition or condition of the item (including any sale, lease, or other transfer, changed use, pledge of the item as collateral, increase or decrease in fair market value by more than 10%, or destruction) after November 15, 2008, as well as the name of any person who authorized or dissented from each such action.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 6 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad, burdensome and oppressive and purports to require Defendants to perform a detailed inventory of all personal property of each Diocesan institution, parish and mission, which inventory could be required in a formal accounting. Plaintiffs have asserted a cause of action against Defendants for an accounting, which cause of action currently is pending. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek by this interrogatory to abuse Rule 197 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure in order to obtain relief upon an asserted and pending cause of action to which Plaintiffs have not been shown to be entitled.

6. Please state the name, title, and term of office of each person who you claim has served on or after November 15, 2008 as a member of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, Trustee of the Corporation, Trustee of the Endowment Fund, member of the Finance Committee; treasurer; Chancellor or assistant chancellor; or Trustee or other official named to control any trust, foundation or other entity created or funded for the use and benefit of the Diocese.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 6 for the reason that such interrogatory is irrelevant to any material issue in this cause and is not calculated to lead to the discovery of evidence admissible upon the trial of this cause. Without waiving the foregoing objection, Defendants state that the information requested in this interrogatory is readily available and ascertainable in the 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 published directories of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, which directories are accessible by Plaintiffs.

7. Please state the name, title, and term of office of each person who you claim has served on or after November 15, 2008 in any Parish or Mission under the Episcopal authority of Jack Leo Iker as a member of the Vestry; Senior Warden; Junior Warden; member of the Finance Committee; Treasurer; rector, vicar, or priest in charge; Chancellor or assistant chancellor; or Trustee or other official named to control any trust, foundation or other entity created or funded for the use and benefit of the Parish or Mission.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 7 for the reason that such interrogatory is irrelevant to any material issue in this cause and is not calculated to lead to the discovery of evidence admissible upon the trial of this cause. Defendants further object to Interrogatory No. 7 for the reason that such interrogatory was propounded in bad faith in order to intimidate and harass persons who are neither parties nor potential parties to this cause.

8. Please state the name of each attorney with whom any of the Defendants have or have had an attorney client relationship regarding the subject matter of this litigation, and for each attorney, state the Defendant(s) represented by the attorney; the person or entity responsible for paying the attorney's fees; the amount of attorney's fees paid to the attorney through the present; the source of the funds used to pay any fees to the attorney; and the amount of attorney's fees currently owed to the attorney.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 8 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad and purports to require Defendants to provide information that is irrelevant to any material issue in this cause and is not calculated to lead to the discovery of evidence admissible upon the trial of this cause.

9. Please fully describe the compensation paid in 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011 to Iker and any other Defendant from any money or property held by or on behalf of the Diocese, the Corporation, the Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, any school, or any other Diocesan institution, including, for each person to whom compensation was paid, the types of compensation paid each year (e.g., salary, bonus, living expenses, property, etc.); the amount of each type of compensation paid each year (in dollars or estimated market value); the source of any funds paid in compensation; and any compensation presently owed.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 9 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad and purports to require Defendants to provide information that is irrelevant to any material issue in this cause and is not calculated to lead to the discovery of evidence admissible upon the trial of this cause. Without waiving the foregoing objection, Defendant states that relevant information requested in this interrogatory is being compiled and will be produced by Defendants in a supplemental response to this interrogatory.

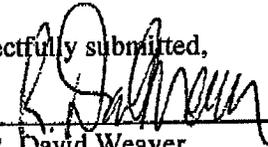

10. Please provide a full description (including date of payment, amount, name of person(s) making the payment, name of recipient, amount of any outstanding balance, and due date) of any payment exceeding $500 made by any of Defendants on behalf of the Diocese, Corporation, Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, any school, or any other Diocesan institution to any person or entity on or after November 15, 2008.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 10 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad, burdensome and oppressive and purports to require Defendants to perform a formal accounting of each Diocesan institution, parish and mission. Plaintiffs have asserted a cause of action against Defendants for an accounting, which cause of action currently is pending. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek by this interrogatory to abuse Rule 197 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure in order to obtain relief upon an asserted and pending cause of action to which Plaintiffs have not been shown to be entitled.

11. Please provide a full description (including the source, date received, receiving person, amount of money or type and value of property, location of money or property, and subsequent use or expenditure of money or property) of any money or property, excluding charitable donations, in excess of $100 that the Diocese, Corporation, Endowment Fund, any Parish or Mission of the Diocese, any school, or any other Diocesan institution has received on or after November 15, 2008.

ANSWER: Defendants object to Interrogatory No. 11 for the reason that such interrogatory is overly broad, burdensome and oppressive and purports to require Defendants to perform a formal accounting of each Diocesan institution, parish and mission. Plaintiffs have asserted a cause of action against Defendants for an accounting, which cause of action currently is pending. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek by this interrogatory to abuse Rule 197 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure in order to obtain relief upon an asserted and pending cause of action to which Plaintiffs have not been shown to be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

Anglican Church in North AmericaMarch 17-19, 2011

Report from the meeting of ACNA Chancellors

by David Weaver
Vice Chancellor of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth

Diocesan and Provincial Chancellors, Canons to the Ordinary and Archdeacons met in Pittsburgh March 17-19 to share ideas, problems and solutions as the Anglican Church in North America continues to expand and grow. The meetings not only fulfilled their stated purpose, they provided an added benefit particularly relevant to the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

As new congregations and dioceses are formed and new bishops consecrated, the ACNA is expanding exponentially under the leadership of Archbishop Robert Duncan, and one of the shining stars in this development continues to be the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth. Although embroiled in a bitter and costly lawsuit with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and its local contingent, the Diocese continues to attract new congregations and new members, demonstrating that ministry can continue to flourish even when facing the major obstacles erected by those who would see us dissolved.

The Fort Worth Diocese is seen among its peers in the ACNA as a champion for the Gospel and mission of the Church. And as the Diocese continues to combat the spiritual warfare that has been launched against it, Bishop Iker and those who are on the front lines with him are being held up in prayer by thousands of faithful Anglicans worldwide.

But the Fort Worth Diocese is not the only example of discipleship in the face of adversity. Dozens of congregations throughout the United States and Canada have abandoned their property and possessions for the sake of the Gospel, and they report that God has blessed them mightily. Their example demonstrates that effective ministry is not dependent upon money and property, but on the commitment of the people to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

As the participants moved through such topics as "What a Bishop Expects of His Diocese" and "What a Diocese Expects of its Bishop," the recurring themes revolved around commitment, prayer and visionary, transforming leadership.

There are those who say that the ACNA cannot survive the diversity of its constituents, that there are insufficient financial resources to fund such an ambitious undertaking, and that differences in the manner in which various groups view the Sacraments and form of worship ultimately will destroy this fragile alliance. What was seen at the meetings held in Pittsburgh, where all of these competing views were represented, was the unity of mission and vision shared by all who were present.

Most importantly for Fort Worth is the reminder provided by this meeting that, while it is proper for the Diocese to take such steps as are necessary to preserve and protect its property and the property of its parishes and missions, the continued survival and success of the ministry of the Diocese and its congregations will not depend upon any ruling by any secular Court. For as long as there are faithful Anglicans committed to the spread of Christ's Kingdom, the ministry and mission of the ACNA and the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth will continue to grow and flourish, with or without the property now in dispute.

Respectfully and faithfully submitted,

R. David Weaver
Vice-Chancellor
Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth

FRANKLIN SALAZAR, et al.)	141 ST DISTRICT COURT

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN H. MEEKS
St. Simon of Cyrene Episcopal Church (Fort Worth)

THE STATE OF TEXAS **
COUNTY OF TARRANT **

BEFORE ME, the undersigned notary public, on this day personally appeared John H. Meeks, who being by me duly sworn, upon oath deposed and said:

1. I am over the age of 18 years, am competent to make this affidavit, and have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein.

2. I am member of St. Simon of Cyrene Episcopal Church (Fort Worth) (“St. Simon”). I was senior warden from November 2008 to December 2010.

3. The following members of St. Simon currently hold positions of leadership in the Parish:

- Jackie Meeks-Senior Warden
- Doris Thurston-Vestry member
- Lois Humphries-Vestry member

4. St. Simon is led by the individuals listed in paragraph 3 and is part of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

5. In November 2008, approximately half of the membership of St. Simon joined the breakaway faction led by The Rt. Rev. Jack Leo Iker in leaving The Episcopal Church and joining the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone. These former members of The Episcopal Church have continued to use and possess St. Simon's real and personal property located at 5505 Ramey Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, 76112 and although, by their own admission, they no longer have any affiliation with The Episcopal Church, they hold themselves out as "St. Simon of Cyrene Episcopal Church".

6. The members of the breakaway faction have excluded the members of St. Simon from any use of the property for the continuing mission of The Episcopal Church, its continuing Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, and its continuing parish. As a result, many of the members of St. Simon who remained loyal to The Episcopal Church are currently worshipping at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church, 3550 Loop 820, Fort Worth, 76133.

7. After leaving The Episcopal Church in 2008, the former members of St. Simon have also continued to use and possess its personal property and have prevented the current members of St. Simon from using and benefitting from this personal property. Among other things, the former members of St. Simon have deprived the current members of St. Simon from using and benefitting from the following items of personal property:

educational supplies for children's Sunday School program; maps, books and other materials for confirmation class and other educational programs; office furniture or equipment, including computers, copiers, projectors, and software; historical parochial records (e.g., service book, memorial books, contact information for members, account statements, historical financial records); vestments, choir robes, faire linen; chalices and other sacramental objects; banner; hymn books, Bibles, and prayer books; library books; etc.)

Much of this personal property has important historical, traditional, and religious value to the members of St. Simon, rendering this property unique and irreplaceable.

8. Because the former members of St. Simon have wrongfully retained possession of membership records and other records and excluded the current members from worship in St.

Simon's property, the actual number of additional members that have remained as members cannot be determined. Similarly, it is impossible to determine how many members of St. Simon have left because of these former members' conduct.

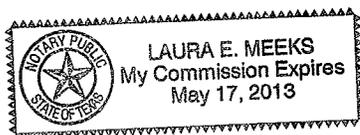

9. The former members' conduct has also disrupted St. Simon's ability to carry on its normal operations as a congregation of The Episcopal Church by preventing normal communications with its members. This has in turn prevented St. Simon and its leaders from providing the full program of religious and community services and from reaching out to and serving its members and members of the public as it has done in the past. Neither the full extent of St. Simon's injury nor the full impact on its membership and community can be measured.

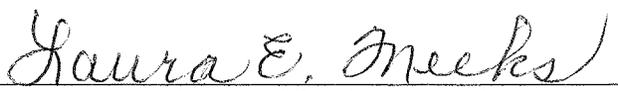

10. Finally, because the former members of St. Simon have purported to be and continue to hold themselves out as St. Simon of Cyrene Episcopal Church, all while occupying its property, St. Simon is unable to control its own reputation and image in the community and preserve the goodwill associated with its name.

AFFIDAVIT OF THE RT. REV. EDWIN F. GULICK, JR.

1. My name is Edwin F. Gulick, Jr. I am over eighteen (18) years of age, of sound mind, and fully capable and competent to make this Affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, and all facts are true and correct.

2. I am the Bishop of The Episcopal Church’s Diocese of Kentucky and have my offices in Louisville, Kentucky. I have served in that capacity since 1994 when I was ordained a bishop in The Episcopal Church. Since February 7, 2009, I have also served as the Bishop of The Episcopal Church’s Diocese of Fort Worth, formed effective 1983, exercising “all the duties and offices” of the Bishop of the Diocese as authorized under Episcopal Church Canon III.13.

Background

3. I incorporate by reference my affidavit on file in this case in support of the Plaintiffs’ Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

4. The individual defendants and others claim that they left the Episcopal Church on or about November 15, 2008 and purport to be affiliated with the Anglican Province of the Southern Cone, an Anglican church in South America, and more recently claim to be affiliated with another group called the Anglican Church in North America. Their departure from the Episcopal Church left vacancies in the diocesan offices they previously held. Those offices, including the offices of bishop, trustees to the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, and chancellor, were filled on February 7, 2009 at the special meeting of the Diocesan Convention called by Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefforts Schori. Specifically, I was elected as provisional bishop of the Diocese pursuant to Episcopal Church Canon III.13 and by virtue of that office was Chairman of the Board of the Diocesan Corporation. Then, acting pursuant to Article II.9 of the Diocesan Corporation's 2006 bylaws and Diocesan Canon 17, and with the advice of the Diocesan Convention, I appointed the following five clergy and laity of the Diocese to serve as Trustees of the Diocesan Corporation: The Rev. James Hazel, Cherie Shipp, Trace Worrell, Robert M. Bass, and The Rev. John Stanley. I also appointed Kathleen Wells as chancellor of the Diocese, which appointment was subsequently confirmed by the Standing Committee.

8. Since February 7, 2009, The Episcopal Church and its Diocese of Fort Worth have recognized me as the provisional bishop, the other persons serving as trustees of the Diocesan Corporation, the persons serving as members of the Standing Committee, and Kathleen Wells serving as the chancellor of the diocese, all as the persons duly authorized to serve in those capacities, respectively.

9. After November 15, 2008, defendant Iker has been acting as the Bishop of defendant Southern Cone Diocese; the former members of the Diocesan Standing Committee have been acting as the Standing Committee of the Southern Cone Diocese; and the former Trustees of the Diocesan Corporation, defendants Salazar, Patton, Virden, Barber, Bates, and Iker, have been acting as trustees of and exercising control over the Diocesan Corporation and, on information and belief, the Fund for the Endowment of the Episcopate, on behalf of and as an instrument of the Southern Cone Diocese but they have not acted on behalf of and are not authorized to act on behalf of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth or the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

15. Since November 15, 2008, defendant Iker and the other defendants have exercised exclusive control over most of the property that belongs to The Episcopal Church's Diocese of Fort Worth, even though they no longer have any connection with The Episcopal Church or its Diocese of Fort Worth, and even though I, on behalf of The Episcopal Church's Diocese of Fort Worth and the Diocesan Corporation, through my chancellor, have demanded that control over such property be returned to them for their use in support of the mission of The Episcopal Church and its Diocese of Fort Worth.

16. Since November 2008, defendant Iker and the other defendants have continued to use the distinctive seal and trade names of The Episcopal Church's Diocese of Fort Worth while acting on behalf of the Southern Cone Diocese, without authorization by, and contrary to the interests and demands of, The Episcopal Church and its Diocese of Fort Worth and causing confusion in the community and further emotional turmoil among loyal Episcopalians in the Diocese.

17. In my capacity as bishop, I directed Jonathan Nelson and Kathleen Wells to institute this litigation and authorized each of them to serve as legal counsel for the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth in this litigation. The Standing Committee of the diocese affirmed those decisions. That authorization continues.

18. The Board of Trustees of the Diocesan Corporation, of which I am Chair, directed that Jonathan Nelson and Kathleen Wells institute this litigation and authorized each of them to serve as legal counsel for the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth in this litigation. That authorization continues.

19. The alleged "Diocesan Movant" is not the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and the Individual Defendants and their counsel have no authority to speak for the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

20. Bishop Jack Leo Iker is not currently the Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

21. The Individual Defendants were but are no longer trustees of the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

COUNTY OF TARRANT §

BEFORE ME THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, on this day personally appeared
THE REV. DR. MARION ROY ("SAM") MCCLAIN, who, being by me personally sworn, upon his oath stated:

1. I am Marion Roy McClain, also known as Sam McClain. I was awarded a Masters of Theological Studies degree from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary in Evanston, Illinois. Later, I was awarded a Doctor of Ministry degree from the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Austin, Texas. I was ordained as a priest in The Episcopal Church in 1977. I served as curate at Holy Nativity Episcopal Church in Plano, Texas from June 1977 to December 1978. Since January 1979, I have served continuously as the rector of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, a parish then in the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas and since 1983 in the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth. I have attended every annual and special meeting of the Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, including the Primary Convention of the Diocese on November 13, 1982. I also attended every annual and special meeting of the Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Dallas that was held between 1979 and 1982, including the special and annual meetings of 1982, when my parish was a part of that Diocese. In my work as clergy canonically resident in the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, I have served on the Commission on Ministry, the Executive Council, the Ecclesiastical Court, and as Dean of the Southern Deanery of the Diocese. All statements made herein are based upon my personal knowledge in the ordinary course of my duties as an ordained priest and rector of a parish in The Episcopal Church and its Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

2. Since before 1982, The Episcopal Church has been providing religious services in the north-central Texas area. Since 1983, The Episcopal Church has been providing these religious services in the north-central Texas area through its Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, which has continuously used (1) the name "Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" and (2) a graphical depiction of a distinctive seal (the "Diocesan Seal"). Reproduced below is a true and correct copy of the Diocesan Seal:

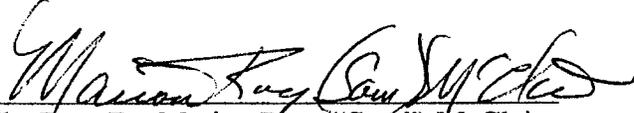

3. This distinctive seal was created and established as the official seal of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth in 1983. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of an excerpt from a 1983 Diocesan newsletter entitled "Diocesan Seal Rich in Heritage," which includes a depiction of the Diocesan Seal and describes its symbolic meaning.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of excerpts from The Episcopal Church Annual (1984) at p. 144, showing the use and association of the name and Diocesan Seal by and with the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 are true and correct copies of cover pages from the Diocesan Journals for 1990 and 2001-2006, all of which demonstrate the use of the name and Diocesan Seal by the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth.

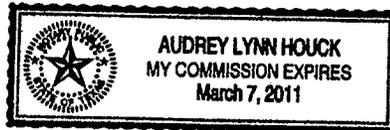

6. Through this use, the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, as a unit of The Episcopal Church, has established substantial goodwill in the name "Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" and in the Diocesan Seal.

DIOCESAN SEAL RICH IN HERITAGE

by The Rt. Rev'd. A. Donald Davies
1 Bishop of Fort Worth

The official seal of the Diocese of Fort Worth is now complete. In keeping with the highly developed discipline of heraldry, the seal was designed by Mr. Eugene Maxey. The Rev. Messrs. Harrison Beste, William Crary and William Risinger. Mr. Maxey, a member of St. Andrew's, is an expert in the science of heraldry and holds membership in heraldry societies in America, England, Scotland and Canada.

Each diocese of the Anglican Communion has an official seal which reflects something of the nature of the life of the diocese. In this new seal our heritage and our commitment to our Lord's mission are artistically set forth. A brief explanation:

Fort Worth, the See City, is indicated by the fortress battlements which divide the Shield through the center horizontally.

The Longhorn Steer, a symbol of a major industry within the diocese, is also a reminder of the frontier spirit and the venturesome nature of the people of God in this part of the country.

The Star, has a two-fold meaning. In Christendom the five pointed star symbolizes the Incarnation. It also stands for the Lone Star State of Texas.

The Griffin, symbol of guardianship of the faithful, is in the upper left corner. The Griffin, half lion and half eagle, is an ancient symbol used by the Celtic people of Great Britain. Bishop Alexander Charles Garrett, an Irishman, utilized the Griffin in the Seal of the Diocese of Dallas to indicate our heritage with the Church of England.

We chose the Griffin because of our Welsh heritage and our linkage with the Diocese of Dallas. Of great significance is the fact that the Apostolic succession of the American Episcopate flowed through David, Patron Saint and Bishop of Wales.

The Keys of St. Peter, depict the authority of the Apostolic ministry bestowed upon the Church by our Lord.

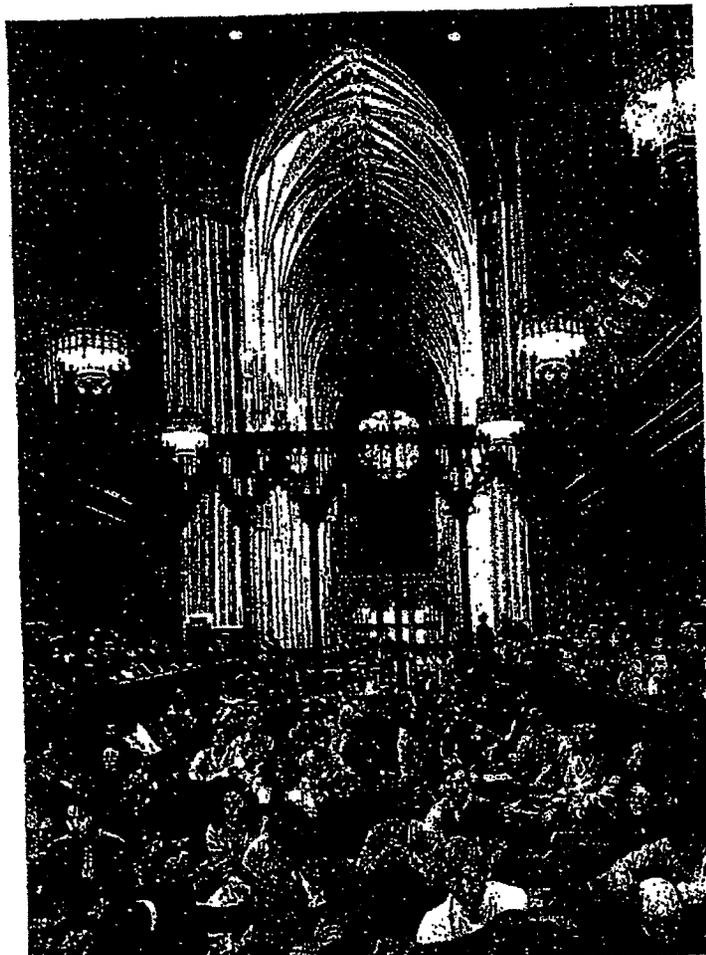

The Bishop's Staff, in black and silver, resembles the crozier used by the Bishop.

Both the presiding Bishop and I were once rectors of Grace Church, Monroe, Louisiana. We had identical croziers which were presented to us as thank-offerings by the people of Grace Church.

The banner carries a motto: Los Brazos De Dios or "The Arms of God." Written in Spanish to reflect the Hispanic culture in Texas, the motto is a reminder of our Servanthood. While Christians are upheld and supported by "the arms of God," Christians are cognizant that by His Grace we are to be "the arms of God" in the Lord's work and mission in today's world.

AFFIDAVIT OF KATHLEEN WELLS

STATE OF TEXAS

BEFORE ME THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, on this day personally appeared
KATHLEEN WELLS, who, being by me personally sworn, upon her oath stated:

1. My name is Kathleen Wells. I am over eighteen years of age, of sound mind, and fully capable and competent to make this Affidavit. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, and all facts stated herein are true and correct.

2. Since February 7, 2009, I have served as the Chancellor of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth (the "Diocese"), which is a subordinate unit of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America ("The Episcopal Church").

3. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of a letter dated January 22, 2009 and attachment sent to the Steering Committee North Texas Episcopalians (the "Steering Committee"), of which I was a member of the board of directors at the time, by Geoffrey Mantooh, who is counsel of record for Defendant Iker in this case. Mantooh erroneously purported in the letter also to represent the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth at that time. The Steering Committee acted as representative of the Episcopalians in the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth in preparation for the special convention held on February 7, 2009 to reorganize the diocesan leadership after Iker and other former leaders of the Diocese had left The Episcopal Church and the diocese on or about November 15, 2008. The letter of the Defendant's attorney to the Steering Committee admits that dual use of the diocesan name and seal by the Episcopalian faction and faction of the former Episcopalians who had left the Church on or about November 15, 2008 is likely to cause confusion.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 are true and correct copies of pages from the website of Iker and his group at www.fwepiscopal.org, as the website appeared on November 23, 2010, showing Iker's unauthorized use of the name and official seal of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and listing the congregations of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth under whose names and on whose properties Iker and his group are offering competing religious services.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3 are true and correct copies of the results from online searches performed on November 23, 2010 for "episcopal diocese of fort worth" and "episcopal fort worth." Both searches yield as among the first results the website of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, www.episcopaldiocesefortworth.org, and the website of Iker and his group, www.fwepiscopal.org.

CERTIFIED MAIL No. 7004 0750 0000 7669 8753
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Mr. Walter Cabe, President
Steering Committee
North Texas Episcopalians
P.O. Box 100846
Fort Worth, Texas 76185-0846

Dear Mr. Cabe:

We represent the Corporation of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth and The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth (referred to herein as "Diocese") in intellectual property matters.

These are uneasy times, both spiritually and economically. As parishes and individual members work through the transition of the Diocese associating itself with the Anglican community in a manner that is independent of the association known as The Episcopal Church, there are likely to be disagreements. It is our hope that these can be worked out. Episcopalians do many good things for this community and the need for spiritual guidance and harmony is higher than ever in these uneasy times.

As you are no doubt aware, the Diocese was founded in the early 1980's. For many years, the Diocese has used "The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" as a trademark for religious services and publications. The Diocese has also used its seal mark for religious services and publications:

Consequently, the Diocese has common law rights to its marks (service marks and trademarks).

Mr. Walter Cabe, Pres.

January 22, 2009

Page Two

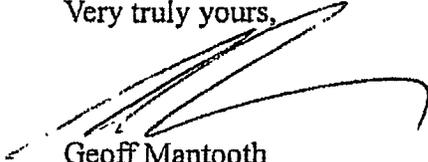

It has come to our attention that the Steering Committee North Texas Episcopalians (referred to herein as "Steering Committee") is using both marks. For example, attached is a copy of a website "episcopaldiocesefortworth.org" which is headlined "The Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth", with the seal mark to the right. Furthermore, the headline states that the Steering Committee represents the Diocese. Furtherstill, the domain name "episcopaldioscesefortworth.org" captures the name mark and elements of the seal mark. In addition, the Steering Committee is using the marks in advertisements and elsewhere.

Such actions by the Steering Committee lead to a likelihood of confusion and constitute trademark infringement. Such actions also constitute a misrepresentation, as the Steering Committee does not represent the Diocese.

You may be unaware of the issues of trademark infringement and misrepresentation. We therefore ask that you stop all use of the marks, whether on web sites, in advertisements, domain names or other ways, and stop claiming to represent the Diocese.

I look forward to your response within fourteen (14) days from the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

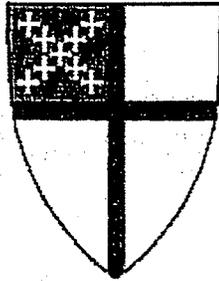

Geoff Mantooth

Presiding Bishop to lead prayer at National Prayer Service

Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori will lead the prayer during the National Prayer Service at the Cathedral at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday. Live streaming from the Cathedral website begins at 9:30. Click on this link to view the service: <http://www.nationalcathedral.org/presidents/service.html>.

Presiding Bishop to attend Special Convention

A Special Convention has been scheduled for February 7, 2009. The day will begin with Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori preaching and celebrating Eucharist at All Saints' Episcopal Church at 10:00 am. The convention itself will be held at Trinity Episcopal Church and will begin at 1:30 pm, followed by Evensong at 5:00pm. For Evensong, acolytes from each parish in our reorganized diocese are invited to be a part of the processional and if possible, one of the participating acolytes may carry a banner representing his or her parish.

A reception for Bp. Jefferts Schori will take place at St. Christopher following Evensong.

On Sunday, Bp. Jefferts Schori will preach and celebrate at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, currently holding services at Oak Crest Woman's Club, 1616 Precinct Line Rd. in Hurst.

Parking in and around the convention sites

The Convention Planning Committee is very much aware that there is limited parking around All Saints', Trinity, and St. Christopher. Plans are underway to arrange for satellite parking at nearby locations, with vans serving as shuttles between the parking areas and the churches. Specific locations for these satellite parking areas will be published as soon as they are available.

No. 4:10-cv-00700-Y

AFFIDAVIT OF ELINOR NORMAND

COUNTY OF TARRANT §

BEFORE ME, THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, on this day personally appeared
ELINOR NORMAND, who, being by me personally sworn, upon her oath stated:

1. My name is Elinor Normand. I am of sound mind, capable of making this Affidavit, and have personal knowledge of the facts herein stated.
2. I am the Webmaster for the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, a diocese of The Episcopal Church. It is primarily my duty to design the diocesan website, at www.episcopaldiocesefortworth.org, and to maintain and update the records and information posted on the diocesan website.
3. The diocesan website has a feature that permits online viewers to send e-mails to the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth seeking general information. The procedure is that those emails come directly to me. After I review an inquiry, I either respond directly or seek information from other diocesan officials in order that they or I may respond to the inquiry.

4. I am the custodian of the website records of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth. Each of the documents attached as an exhibit hereto is kept by the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth in the regular course of business, and for each document it was the regular course of business of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth for an employee or representative of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth with knowledge of the act, event, condition, or opinion recorded to make the record or to transmit information thereof to be included in such record, and the record was made at or near the time or reasonably soon thereafter. The records attached hereto are exact duplicates of the originals.

5. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of an e-mail received by the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth on December 1, 2010, with personal identifying information redacted.

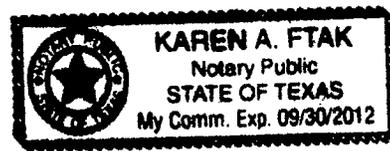

6. In addition, I volunteered on or about April 29, 2009 to answer the telephone at the Diocesan Center of the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, located at 3550 Southwest Loop 820, Fort Worth, Texas. While acting in that capacity, I answered a call to the diocese from a caller who asked to speak to Bishop Jack Iker or his staff and otherwise asked questions that inquired about the business of the faction associated with Bishop Iker and not The Episcopal Church. I gave the caller the phone number of the offices currently used by Bishop Iker and his staff.

7. Based on what I have heard and observed from the public's contacts with the Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, it is my opinion that there is confusion among the public as to which faction—the Episcopalians who remained with The Episcopal Church or those who left The Episcopal Church with the Diocese's former bishop, Jack Iker—is entitled to use the name "Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth" and to which faction and church that name refers.

We have recently moved from [REDACTED] to the [REDACTED] subdivision. Our membership is currently with [REDACTED] Episcopal Church in [REDACTED].

We are somewhat confused by the fact that there are 2 churches within a few minutes of our home, one of which is St. Barnabas Church on Parkwood Hill Blvd. The ECUSA website lists this church as a mission church. The other, St. Barnabas the Apostle does not appear on the website.

We would like confirmation that St. Barnabas Episcopal Church on Parkwood Hill Blvd. is under the Bishopric of ECUSA Presiding Bishop Schori and Provisional Bishop of Fort Worth Ohi and remains Episcopalain.

Thank you for your help.

Peace,

[REDACTED]
