

The Enneagram and Spiritual Growth

2016 Women's Retreat

Returning to the true self that God created us to be is the goal of our spiritual journey. Recognizing when our own ego gets in the way of our God created true self gives wings to our journey and brings great insight and compassion into our lives and the lives of those we love. Part of this growth requires that we find balance in our lives. We will discover various practices we can add to our lives to fill in some missing pieces in order that we can truly grow into the person God made us to be so that God's love and care can flow freely through us to the world.
